CARNIVAL.

The members of the Argyle Curling and Skating Rink held their first car-aval on their rink Saturday evening last.

The carnival was a decided success in every particular. The Band was there and played some excellent pieces during the evening. The spectators were numerous and well pleased, the costumes were many and some of them first-class, and everything passed off pleasantly.

The Judges—Mr. H. B. Garvin, Mr.

Bain and Supt. Perry—had their hands full, having some fifteen prizes to dispose of. The following are the awards:

—Ladies' costumes—Miss Brattoner, a

Flower Girl, Whisk Holder; Mrs. Dea-

FRIDAY, MARCH 12, 1886.

The Dominion Parliament was formally opened on Feb. 25th, by Governor General Landsdowne, in the presence of an immense number of spectators. Unusual interest attaches to the present session, and in addition to the members there are many visitors in the city.

The speech from the throne deals largely with Northwest matters. The country is congratulated on the fact that peace and order have been restored and now prevail throughout the Territories. Intimations have not been wanting that the Government to allay any tendency to panic through the fear of a recurrence of disorders have resorted upon making precautionary arrangements such as will insure to the people now in the Northwest, and to those who desire to settle there, effective protection against disturbers. Demands have been made for a simple and comprehensive system of government in the Northwest. His Excellency announced the intention of the Government to submit such a measure. The expediency of improving the judiciary system of the Northwest has been brought before the Government during the recess and His Excellency informs Parliament that a measure for that purpose will be introduced by the Government. The census of the Northwest having been taken the next thing to follow is representation of the people in Parliament. A measure for that purpose will be introduced.

Other provisions of the memorial promised to be granted during the session were an immediate settlement of old settlers' claims, and the right of transfer, the Council to have power to incorporate companies having territorial objects, Habeas Corpus Act, Territorial Court of Appeal, appointment of residents to positions of trust, food supplies of police to be purchased there. The Government promised to use its influence to have freight rates on the Pacific, especially on Columbia lumber, reduced. The charge made to settlers for wood was reduced. The opening to settlement of cancelled lands is under consideration. It is probable a survey of the trail to Peace River will be made. The right to enter pre-emption as second homesteads was rejected, but the Government will probably give rebate for extra duties either for stock or tree culture. The demand that odd sections be opened for settlement is not decided. Sir John said the Pacific wants to pay off the twenty million loan. The delegates urged the Government in lieu of the payment to take back the Pacific lands along the track and open them to settlement on the usual conditions. The Government failed to speak favorably on the construction of the Hudson Bay road. The demand that the services of the peace and home guards be recognized the same as volunteers was refused. The delegates were promised that a commission to settle outstanding half-breed claims would be sent from Winnipeg in a few weeks. A second commission, composed of three, including Mr. Muma, and authorized to settle rebellion losses in payment of settlers and merchants who gave supplies, will be despatched from Ottawa next week.

The Federal Government is reported to be considering a scheme to place the Mounted Police under the control of the Militia Department. The change would probably prove not only satisfactory to the public, but gratifying to the police themselves. The greatest confidence has been felt in the Militia Department since the late rebellion in the Northwest.

A conference of immigration agents with the Secretary of the Department of Agriculture was held in Ottawa, the object being to make arrangements for next season's work. It is gratifying to know that a large immigration is anticipated, and that special pains will be taken in England to provide that assisted passages will be given to agricultural laborers only. Artisans and others desirous of trying their fortune in Canada, will have to find their way across the Atlantic as best they can.

The Manitoba in commenting on the promises made to the delegates from the North West Council says:—"It is clearly evident on the whole, that brighter and more prosperous days are directly ahead of the Northwest. The winter of our discontent is already budding into spring, and will soon have changed into glorious summer. Not only are substantial grievances being removed, but the substantial wants of the Territories are to be promptly and satisfactorily filled. The people of the Northwest are most earnestly congratulated on their good fortune."

QU'APPELLE

From the Valdieu.

Dr. Hall has returned from his professional trip to the Indian reserves at Touchwood.

Major Coutier, Assistant Commissioner, N.W.M.P., passed through here on his way to Regina, from the north on Tuesday.

Messrs. D. H. McMillan & Bro. celebrated the opening of the mill, at the Station, last Thursday evening, by entertaining a number of the people of the municipality, at the Queen's Hotel.

COMMUNICATIONS.

SETTLERS AND THE RELIEF QUESTION.

To the Editor of The Times.

SIR,—In The Times of 5th inst., appears a report of a settlers' meeting at St. Catharines, in which it is stated that "the people ascribe their present condition principally to the fact that they were unnecessarily detained here last spring at seedling time to garrison this place and were unable to put in their crops."

That the farmers were detained on duty and so were unable to put in their crops is quite true and, from our present point of view, this detention may, in a sense, appear to have been unnecessary. But it must be recalled that in the end of April and beginning of May last there was nothing but uncertainty here as to the state of affairs outside. The farmers were very anxious to get home to put in their crops and Col. Irvine was made fully aware of the fact, but not seeing his way to accede to their request, he called a meeting of the officers of the various volunteer companies and made a statement, from which it appeared that not much of a definite nature was known of General Middleton's movements, just as little of the rebel tactics, and nothing at all of what the Indians were about. What seemed quite clear, however, was that the rebels lay in strong force between the General's position and Prince Albert and within striking distance of the latter place. In all the circumstances, the Colonel considered it would be wrong to allow the farmers to spread themselves over the country, thereby becoming liable to be cut off in detail in the event of the rebels or Indians moving on this place, and equally wrong to weaken the defence of the town where so many hundreds of women and children had taken refuge.

But, whether rightly or wrongly, Col. Irvine did decide to detain the enrolled farmers on duty and on him, as representing the Government, must rest the full responsibility for so doing. At this meeting, last referred to, it was plainly pointed out to Col. Irvine that his decision rendered it certain there could be little or no farming for the year, and that assistance in some way would have to be provided for many of the settlers till the harvest of 1886. The Colonel thereupon promised to purchase, at a pretty high figure, grain from those of settlers who had it and were willing to sell, and to give assistance in some other shape to those who were not so fortunate as to have any for sale. Some settlers turned in their grain to the Government and were paid for it, but a larger number had none to sell, have had no crop and no assistance and now they ask that something be done for them in fulfillment of Col. Irvine's promise.

Had the Government seen fit to allow and pay the settlers reasonable compensation for the loss of farming last year owing to the rebellion, it is believed there would have been no applications for relief of any moment. Messrs. Muma and Oulmet, the Government arbitrators, were interviewed on this subject when here in August. These gentlemen, however, while promising to make a representation to the Government on the point, stated that it did not come within the scope of their duties, but would probably be seen to by the Commission which they expected soon to follow them. This Commission has not yet turned up and there has been no satisfaction given thus far.

There has been no lack of effort to bring the condition of the settlers before the authorities. It may be remembered that when General Middleton arrived here from Batavia, a deputation, appointed at a large meeting of enrolled farmers, waited upon him and represented the matter fully (see Times report of 2nd June). The General promised to forward their written statement at once to Ottawa and no doubt he did so.

Again, the visit of the Hon. Thomas White will be fresh within the memory of your readers and his careful consideration of the matters brought before him and his evident anxiety to do what he could for the settlers are, as we all know, already producing fruit.

Your columns of Friday last show the more recent phases of the proceedings, and now that the matter has passed into the able hands of our respected member, those interested feel assured it will not be allowed to fall into oblivion.

NORTH WEST NOTES

CALGARY.

From the Herald.

The thermometer was 57 above zero to-day in the shade.

Col. Herchmer returned from Edmonton yesterday.

Mr. C. B. Howell, of Winnipeg, arrived in town to-day.

I. G. Baker & Co. are shipping up 600 bags of flour to Victoria and Peace Hills, 300 to each place this week. This is part of the Indian contract supply.

Signs of spring are numerous. The grass is sprouting on the prairies, the ploughshare is busy on the surrounding farms, and prairie fires are raging to the west of us.

Mr. Geo. A. Stewart, D.L.S., C.E., accompanied by a party of six, including Messrs. Brown, W. Sherwood and Ed. Howell, left on Sunday for Banff to survey the National Park. The work is expected to take up most of the summer.

The old Calgary House round which used to congregate the young bloods of Calgary a year and a half ago, has at last concluded to cross the river. It was moved across to-day by Howell Olds. It will be moved to the lots next Mr. Jarrett's house.

There seems very little doubt that Col. Irvine will presently retire from the command of the N. W. M. P. In that event, it is stated that an Imperial officer will command the force. There being no military talent in Canada, of course there is nothing else to be done than to get an Imperial officer to teach the police the goose step.

EDMONTON.

From the Bulletin.

Thawing weather all week. Roads icy and crust on the snow.

Bovids here south of the Lone Pine. A. Robertson recently sold a yoke of beef oxen to M. Cauley for $250.

X. St. Jean's new well has eight feet of good water at a depth of thirty-five feet.

A. Rowland and J. Favel have children suffering from diphtheria. No fatal cases.

Rev. J. A. McLachlan and wife and J. A. Mitchell, Indian agent, arrived from Victoria on Wednesday.

Half the shares in the proposed cemetery company have been subscribed and the business of the company will be proceeded with.

C. W. Sutter rallied his organ at the Jasper house on Tuesday evening last, winning it himself with only one throw.

On Saturday evening last the H. B. Co. clerks celebrated their removal to new quarters in the fort by an oyster supper.

Thos. Edmundson had his face cut severely and two teeth knocked out by a toboggan accident on Tuesday evening. He was taken up insensible.

R. Goulet, who was a member of the scrip commission of last summer has been appointed sole commissioner to settle out-standing halfbreed claims, and will begin work as soon as the season will permit.

On Friday of last week as a brother belonging to the St. Albert Mission was crossing Kelly's bridge on the Sturgeon River with a load of coal from the Egg Lake creek, the bridge collapsed, letting horses, sleigh, load and man suddenly down to the ice, a distance of about ten feet. A slight crack in the sleigh box was the only injury sustained. The bridge is a total wreck.

LETHBRIDGE.

From the News.

Mr. H. F. Greenwood left yesterday for McLeod. He will be absent two or three days.

Supt. Neale came in from Regina on Wednesday's train and went on to McLeod yesterday.

Conductor Hoag started on Wednesday morning on a visit to Winnipeg. We hope he will have a good time.

Mr. O. S. Main returned from his ranch yesterday. He reports cattle in that vicinity as fat, sleek and looking well.

Base ball seems to be a favorite amusement with the boys here lately. Nearly every afternoon a game may be seen in progress on the square.

Prairie fires had been burning both north and west of the town for some days, but the snow storm of Tuesday evening extinguished them.

Staff Sergeant, Saffrey, Mrs. Saffrey and child and Miss Saunders came in on Saturday's train. The former and family went on to McLeod on Sunday.

The stage on Wednesday evening last was unable to cross the river at this place owing to the rotten state of the ice. The express matter was brought across on a light wagon.

The musical instruments for the McLeod Mounted Police Band came in here on Wednesday's train and were sent on to McLeod yesterday. There were sixteen in number and appeared to be a fine set.

On Sunday evening last, while Mr. Pierce and family were in town attending church, four Indians visited his place and after motioning the boy in charge of the place to give them grub, they went outside and cut off a quantity of beef from a quarter hanging up and took it away with them. Mr. Pierce came into town next morning and informed the police of what had occurred, and a couple of men were sent out, but nothing was found of the Indians. Capt. Howe is of the opinion that the Indians were hunting lost horses, and their motions to the boy was to learn if he had seen anything of them. They evidently did not mean any breach of the law or else they would have taken more than they did, as no one else was on the premises but the small boy.

REGINA.

From the Leader.

Weather magnificent.

Mr. N. P. Davin left for the east on Tuesday night.

John B. Gough, the eminent temperance lecturer died last week.

Mr. W. King Dickson has severed his connection with the Temperance Colonization Society.

It is estimated that Manitoba has a milling capacity sufficient to turn out 2,500 barrels of flour daily.

It is again asserted that Sir Fred. Middleton will visit the Northwest in March with a flying column of permanent corps.

The Canadian Pacific Railway have concluded arrangements for steamship connection between Vancouver, B. C., and San Francisco.

Jim Moran, an old Regina timer, has arrived from a trip to Prince Albert. Jim says seed wheat is $1.75 and seed oats $1 a bushel. Railroad accommodation is badly needed up north.

Capt. Neale has received intimation from Ottawa that his explanation of the cause of his arrest is satisfactory. The Captain goes to McLeod in a day or two.

The Qu'Appelle, Long Lake and Saskatchewan railroad and steamboat company have applied for authority to build a line from the company's line to Prince Albert to extend from Regina to Wood Mountain and the Souris coal fields, to limit the bonding power to $10,000 a mile, to change the company's name, and for other purposes.

TOWN COUNCIL.

To the Editor of The Times.

DEAR SIR,—Kindly allow me to follow up a small, but very truthful item in your last issue regarding the great lack of interest now being displayed by our Town Council, not only by his Worship but the civic body generally.

When we remember the wonderful energy displayed by them for a month or so after election, their later actions show up in very distinct contrast. I do not believe it would be at all fair on the part of electors to criticise too severely the legislative ability of a first Council, but I do think we can call them to account for seriously neglecting important public business.

No doubt for their own protection they secured for a Council room a place so small as to practically prohibit the public attending their meetings, which will in a large measure excuse the fact that very few people know who is to blame for so many meetings being passed for want of a quorum. You as a newspaper man might be able to give information to satisfy the public, as to the cause of our Town Council's slothful march; 2nd, exactly how many meetings have already been called at which there was no quorum; 3rd, who were present and absent on these meetings; 4th, reasons? Later on, unless they bestir themselves, I shall be forced to ask for what purpose they took the trouble of passing by laws at all, why committees were made, and a few other points to which I think electors may freely refer.

Great praise is due the drivers of the mail stage for their regularity in delivering the mails notwithstanding the cold and bad state of the roads at times.
